

The Problem Princes

The above is the title of Dispatches on Channel 4 tomorrow (23 February) at 8pm.

The programme is about the role of our various royal princes, excluding Prince Charles on this occasion.

I make an appearance, so it's pretty safe to assume money, offshore, or both feature in the tale.

I didn't get sent to the Tower for doing the Dispatches on Prince Charles. I don't suppose I will be for doing this one. But I do have a feeling my knighthood gets more remote by the day...:-)
