Date: 15 April 2008

Time: 14:00 - 19:30

Where: TUC, Great Russell Street, London WC1B 3LS

A major rally organised by Compass, Tax Justice Network, the Fabian Society and the Other TaxPayers' Alliance.

While the government focuses its energy on benefit fraud through its 'We're Closing In' campaign, it is the wealthiest and most privileged who cost us the most and exacerbate inequality.

In the run up to the 2009 Budget, we'll be calling on the Chancellor to use every means at his disposal to close in on tax avoidance and deliver greater tax justice.

Speakers include:

- Richard Murphy of Tax Justice Network UK
- Jon Cruddas MP
- Kate Green of Child Poverty Action Group
- Adam Leith of the TUC

And we're pleased to announce that Treasury Minister Angela Eagle MP has agreed to come along and listen to our concerns.
