

Credit quality of global groups at 25-year low

Published: January 16, 2026, 3:06 am

The FT has reported that the quality of corporate debt is at its lowest level for 25 years.

Hardly surprising, but it is yet another argument for Green Bonds - which would be used to provide real benefit for real people through investment in our collective futures, and for People's Pensions.