

Why be at the G20?

Three reasons so far:

- 1) Bumped into Jon Snow from Channel 4 and got 6 of us blogger interviewed foirst thing this morning
- 2) Met Tom Watson MP from the Cabinet Office to discuss my last blog within 20 minutes of getting here. Issues clarified.
- 3) Had briefing from the UK negotiating team on current state of play.

It would be hard to achieve that from anywhere else.
