

Non-disclosure is criminal

Published: January 14, 2026, 12:21 pm

Dave Hartnett, boss of HM Revenue & Customs on those criminals who do not disclose offshore bank accounts.

About 50% of UK personal account holders in Jersey and Guernsey do not voluntary directly disclose their earnings to HM Revenue & Customs.

It's a blunt message to all those who live in tax havens who like to think that nothing illegal happens there. Let me assure them: it does.