TAX HAVENS
How Globalization Really Works
RONEN PALAN, RICHARD MURPHY, AND CHRISTIAN CHAVAGNEUX
ISBN: 978-0-8014-7612-9 | 280 pages | £15.50 paper

"Impeccably researched and packed with new insights, this groundbreaking book exposes financial capitalism's best-kept secret."

—JOHN CHRISTENSEN, DIRECTOR, TAX JUSTICE NETWORK INTERNATIONAL SECRETARIAT, LONDON

From the Cayman Islands and the Isle of Man to the Principality of Liechtenstein and the state of Delaware, tax havens offer lower tax rates, less stringent regulations and enforcement, and promises of strict secrecy to individuals and corporations alike. In recent years government regulators, hoping to remedy economic crisis by diverting capital from hidden channels back into taxable view, have undertaken sustained and serious efforts to force tax havens into compliance.

In Tax Havens, Ronen Palan, Richard Murphy, and Christian Chavagneux provide an up-to-date evaluation of the role and function of tax havens in the global financial system—their history, inner workings, impact, extent, and enforcement. They make clear that while, individually, tax havens may appear insignificant, together they have a major impact on the global economy. Holding up to $13 trillion of personal wealth—the equivalent of the annual U.S. Gross National Product—and serving as the legal home of two million corporate entities and half of all international lending banks, tax havens also skew the distribution of globalization's costs and benefits to the detriment of developing economies. The first comprehensive account of these entities, this book challenges much of the conventional wisdom about tax havens.

RONEN PALAN is Professor of International Political Economy at the University of Birmingham. He is the author of The Offshore World: Sovereign Markets, Virtual Places, and Nomad Millionaires, also from Cornell. RICHARD MURPHY is CEO of Tax Research, LLP, based in the UK. He is a frequent adviser to the media, NGOs, and politicians, and writes a blog at taxresearch.org.uk. CHRISTIAN CHAVAGNEUX, based in Paris, is deputy editor in chief of Alternatives Economiques and editor of L'Economie politique.
