

Budget coverage

---

It's budget day, which is going to be busy.

I'm twittering through the budget itself. I'm RichardJMurphy on Twitter. This will contribute to the Left Foot Forward and AccountingWEB live coverage.

I will also be on the Jeremy Vine show on BBC Radio 2 at about 12.20 and after the Chancellor sits down.

And I will have budget articles out for AccountingWEB and Forbes this afternoon, all being well.

As a result it may be quiet here!
