

Has Clegg blown it?

General Election 2010: Nick Clegg says Conservatives have the right to govern - Telegraph.

Nick Clegg has said the Tories have a right to try to form a government.

Some think that means he's blown it.

Me? No, I don't think so yet. I'd do the same if I was him right now.

The reality is Cameron can't deliver a majority.

When that's clear he goes to labour and then says to them, now accept my terms.

And Labour could deliver a majority with the Lib Dems and minority parties.

Clegg could be making a right fool of himself.

He could be acting smart.

Time alone will tell.
