Labour MP Stephen Timms stabbed | Politics | guardian.co.uk.

Stephen Timms MP was stabbed yesterday.

This isn't an obituary - he's expected to make a full recovery.

But I would like to put it on record that he was first rate Labour minister and a very good friend of tax justice, development and country-by-country reporting.

It's a big loss that he's out of office.

Get well soon Stephen.
