

The sun's gone down over Greece

Published: January 14, 2026, 5:36 am

---

FT.com / Companies / Travel & Leisure - Thomas Cook sees bookings to Greece slide.

If Greece is to have any chance of recovery it has to export.

One of its biggest exports is tourism. The FT reports:

Thomas Cook revealed that holiday sales to Greece have slumped in the wake of riots and the economic turmoil afflicting the country.

The sun's just gone down over Greece.

That's another nail in the coffin of ordinary people in the country.

The possibility of major social collapse increases it seems, almost by the day.