

93, not out

Published: January 13, 2026, 11:13 pm

William Keegan in the Observer reports comments by Denis Healy, the former Labour Chancellor, made last week. He apparently said:

I feel sorry for George Osborne, despite his politics [pregnant pause] — and his personality.

Healey has always been the master of the pithy, biting, phrase. He still is, it seems, at the age of 93.