

Funding the Future

Article URL

Published: January 12, 2026, 4:51 pm

The FT reports:

Leaders of the UK's biggest businesses are at their most optimistic about trading prospects for five years, while smaller companies are freezing investment plans and raising prices in the face of uncertainty about domestic demand.

I very strongly suspect that is true.

And it is very significant because it is small business, not big business, that generates most new jobs in the UK economy.

In that case this is very bad news indeed.