

Cameron said this. And then did the Swiss tax deal

David Cameron said this:

"For me the root cause of this mindless selfishness is the same thing I have spoken about for years: it is a complete lack of responsibility in parts of our society.

"People allowed to feel that the world owes them something, that their rights outweigh their responsibilities and that their actions do not have consequences. Well they do have consequences.

"We need to have a clearer code of values and standards that we expect people to live by and stronger penalties if they cross the line.

"Restoring a stronger sense of responsibility across our society in every town in every street in ever estate is something I am determined to do."

And then he signed the Swiss tax deal.

Which lets criminals off the hook.

Which endorses banking secrecy to hide crime.

Which undermines honest business.

Which rewards tax evasion.

Which will bring no one to account for their crime.

Which means we now know for sure what we always suspected.

He's a hypocrite.
