

Comments: yet again

It looks like the trolls are out again.

Saying 'you're wrong' is not debate. And it's deleted as a result - as I say I will do in the comments policy.

And don't say a) it means I've given up or b) I'm censoring as a consequence.

It actually means I have a life. And that I can't be bothered with those who seek to deny it.

So you're wasting your own time if that's all you've got to say.
