As the Jersey Evening Post says today:

JERSEY is now ranked in the top ten worldwide locations for providing wealth management and private banking services.

It is ranked in eighth position overall and is fifth placed in Europe behind London, Zurich, Geneva and Frankfurt, according to the latest Global Financial Centres Index released this week.

Now if you had just been ranked the best place to hide the world's money from view would you want to shout about it? No, nor would I. But then - you don'y have that distorted mindset and nor do I. Thankfully.
