Today - The Courageous State, on Sky and at #OccupyLSX

Published: January 13, 2026, 5:15 pm

There may not be much blogging today.

An early dash to town is scheduled.

I'm picking up the first copy of The Courageous State this morning - which should be available sometime next week now, all being well.

Then it's Sky on the need for infrastructure spending at 12.30.

Followed by a discussion at Tent City University at #OccupyLSX at St Paul's at 2pm on the St Paul's Institute report 'Value and Values: Perceptions of Ethics in the City Today'.

But you never know, there's always time on the train.
