

Funding the Future

Article URL

<https://www.taxresearch.org.uk/Blog/2012/01/24/its-hsbc-again/>

Published: January 12, 2026, 6:29 pm

HSBC's ability to appear whenever allegations of tax evasion arise is becoming almost monotonously predictable. Today it's in the Harry Redknapp case. Yes, it was HSBC who ran his Monaco account.

And still The Rev Lord Stephen Green, former CEO and Chairman graces the corridors of power as a Tory trade minister. Wouldn't it be more useful if he explained what his bank was doing in tax havens?