

Funding the Future

And now I'm on Sky at 1.30pm today - Adam Boulton show ..

Straight after the BBC I'll be hot footing it upstairs from the BBC studio at Millbank, Westminster into the Sky studio, which is literally on the floor above, for a 1.30 interview with Adam Boulton on the 50p tax rate.

Mind you, I'll have to call in at make up on the way again. The BBC just do a bit of powder. Sky spray paints the foundation on - a truly weird experience I can assure you - certainly for me! And one that requires many baby wipes to remove afterwards.
