I've just realised that Eoin Clarke's Left Labour blog The Green Benches is now number one political blog in the UK.

It's an astonishing achievement by Eoin to create such an effective campaigning tool in such a short time.

Hats off to him for all he's done.

And follow him on Twitter too at <https://twitter.com/DrEoinClarke> @DrEoinClarke

And please join his campaign to email LibDems on the NHS.
