As announced earlier, the 2012 research workshop co-organised by the Association for Accountancy & Business Affairs and the Tax Justice Network, will explore connections between tax avoidance, corruption and crisis. The workshop is to be held at Essex University in the UK, 5th-6th July 2012

The website registration portal for the 2012 workshop has now been launched. All the details and links are on the ABBA website.

The 2011 prices are held, there is no increase. Early bird registrants (up to 1st June 2012) will pay the lower charge. After that a higher charge is applicable. Additional nights in student accommodation can be booked. There will be no on-site registration. Therefore, delegates without prior registration will not be able to attend.
