

The NHS sell off is gaining momentum

From David Harney on the Think Left Facebook site this morning:

The Gov`t sell-off of our NHS took another sickening turn yesterday, with Virgin signing a £500m contract to take over Surrey NHS. Also SERCO & Virgin have aquired East Anglia Mental Health Care. Further, Virgin are on the brink of buying Community Care from North Norfolk NHS. Sorry to bare such bad news at this time of the morning, but thought we all should know. Terribly sad day for our National Health Service!

Indeed.

You didn't think you'd see the end of the NHS. But now it's happening right under your noses.
