

If the Danish tax authorities can publish a list of pre...

Published: January 13, 2026, 6:15 pm

---

For the first time ever the Danish tax authorities started publishing information on the taxes paid by all Danish companies today. You can see a sample here.

68% of all Danish companies paid tax, which is vastly better than the 33% I estimate pay tax in the UK.

But the real question is, if the Danes can do this, why can't HMRC? What is wrong with this openness and transparency?