Economia magazine is the official publication of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales. I've just realised that it published its summary of the top 50 blogs used by chartered accountants just before Christmas. And as they put it:

The list is dominated by journalists, with Newsnight's economics editor Paul Mason coming in at number seven.

Flying the flag for chartered accountants in the top ten is Richard Murphy, founder of the Tax Justice Network and an advisor to the TUC on taxation and economic issues. A sometime columnist for The Guardian and Forbes.com, he offers his followers forthright views on the profession.

I wonder what the prize might be. A column in Economia, maybe?

The full list is here. Good to see Stuart Jones in it too.
