I just searched the Taxpayers' Alliance site for the term Starbucks. I was sure they had to have said something about the issue.

Nope. Nothing. Not a hit. Not a word. Zilch.

How is that? How come 'Britain's independent grassroots campaign for lower taxes' has nothing to say about Starbucks paying almost no tax? Surely they're not lost for words?

Come on chaps, let us know, what's the deal? They aren't sponsoring you, are they? After all, someone is.....
