I've just mentioned the absurd list of panelists invited to the Labour Policy Review meeting on tax, but if anything the meeting on household debt is worse:

Monday 13 May

How should we deal with household indebtedness? 4.30-6pm Committee room 6

Speakers. Chris Pond (Chairman, Equity Release Council), Mark Lyonette (Chief Executive Association of British Credit Unions), representative from Wonga Chair. Chris Leslie MP (Shadow Financial Secretary to the Treasury)

If you would like to attend please email onenationregister@gmail.com with subject header DEBT

Labour Policy Review organised with Labour Finance and Industry Group and Labour in the City

Wonga?

WHAT?

I wonder what Stella Creasy will have to say.
