

The autumn statement announces increasing privatisation..

Published: January 13, 2026, 2:46 pm

These worrying statements are included in the autumn statement:

The privatisation of tax collection in the UK continues apace - undermining the quality, credibility, privacy and cost effectiveness of tax collection as well as reducing public confidence in what must be a state activity.