The Fair Tax Mark has published its new criteria for assessing UK based multinational corporations this morning.

I am not going to repeat all the commentary on the FTM blog here: please go there and read. You can download the criteria notes here.

We are looking for comment and feedback by 10 July. Positive and negative is welcome - but please make it constructive or we will find it hard to use. You can post comment here if you wish. All positive contributions will be shared with the full FTM team.
