

This looks like it could be fun on Monday

Published: January 13, 2026, 4:27 am

---

This email arrived this afternoon:

-----

Public Accounts Committee

Informal note to the media

Subject: Tax avoidance and evasion: HSBC

The Committee has decided to call the following witnesses to give further evidence to this inquiry:

Monday 9th March (Committee Room to be confirmed)

At 3.15pm:

Stuart Gulliver
(confirmed)

Chief Executive, HSBC Holdings plc

Chris Meares
HSBC Global Private Banking (confirmed)

former Group General Manager and CEO,

Rona Fairhead
HSBC

Independent non-executive Director,

At approximately 4.15pm:

Edward Troup
Assurance Commissioner, HM Revenue and Customs (confirmed)

Second Permanent Secretary and Tax

Dave Hartnett
Revenue and Customs

former Permanent Secretary for tax, HM

The Committee previously took evidence from HMRC on this subject on 11 February 2015.

-----

The words 'cats' and 'pigeons' came to mind.

And it will be great to see Dave again.....