No to austerity

No to the economic madness of the EU offer to Greece

No to fear

No to dogma

No to bankers

No to technocracy

No to neo-feudalism

Yes to democracy

Yes in hope

Yes to a viable euro

Yes to an EU of separate nations

Yes to the right to choose

No means this yes is possible

And whatever happens next, democrats and those with any understanding of macroeconomics will heave heaved a sigh of relief as the Greek poll results have started coming in tonight
