

Nottingham, Thursday August 20

I am speaking at Jeremy Corbyn's rally in the Albert Hall, Nottingham on Thursday evening.

I am sure everyone is bored by now of me saying I am not a member of the Labour Party, etc., but this event is another opportunity for me to explain the ideas I have created that Jeremy is using.

If the press want to come and ask questions I gather the press conference is from 6pm.

It will be good to meet readers of the blog - please do say hallo.
