

It's not just emissions

I think this headline in the Guardian is telling:

VW admits emissions scandal was caused by 'whole chain' of failures

German carmaker says company suffered from mindset that tolerated rule-breaking

I am quite sure that was not just with regard to emissions.

And not just in VW.

The corporate world has, in far too large part, had that mindset with regard to tax.

And I'm not convinced that it's by any means changed as yet.
