In the June 2016 Taxcast: how different could the lives of those in poverty have been without secrecy jurisdictions? We give you the very latest estimates on the missing trillions offshore from the world's developing regions.

Also: Brexit and the special interests behind it: "Nakedly, brazenly, they're pushing the City of London's deregulated, criminal approach to finance".

Plus, the Panama Papers shed some light on secretive, pro-tax haven US lobbying group the Center for Freedom and Prosperity's funders.

"the revelations from the Panama Papers have been sensational but an international investigation with some kind of subpoena power would I think be 10 times as important."
