The All Party Parliamentary Group on Responsible Tax is holding the following event:

How do we build public trust in HMRC?

10am, Wednesday 16th November 2016
Committee Room 6, House of Commons, London, SW1A 0AA

HMRC has received sustained scrutiny in recent years about its ability to collect tax fairly and effectively while providing good customer service. Hosted by the APPG on Responsible Tax, this seminar will examine how we can build public trust in HMRC.

The All Party Parliamentary Group on Responsible Tax are holding this public seminar as part of our consultation on public confidence in HMRC. This is the first of a series of events.

Confirmed speakers include:

- * Margaret Hodge MP, Chair, APPG on Responsible Tax (event chair)
- * Jolyon Maugham, Barrister, Devereux Chambers
- * Professor Kimberley Scharf, Warwick University
- * Richard Murphy, Director, Tax Research UK

Places are limited and will be allocated on a first-come-first-served basis.

CoVi is the co-Secretariat of the APPG on Responsible Tax

The All-Party Parliamentary group on Responsible Tax was established in September 2015. Chaired by Rt Hon Dame Margaret Hodge MP, the other officers are Lord Stewart Wood, Richard Bacon MP, Charlotte Leslie MP, Ian Blackwood MP, Mark Durkan MP, Caroline Flint MP, Craig Mackinlay MP, and Seema Malhotra MP. The group also has thirty Parliamentary members.
