

Bugged

Published: January 15, 2026, 9:01 am

No, my account has not been bugged and this blog has not been hacked. I am bugged: I have what some might, I suspect, call man flu. As a result it will be a day of light blogging, at most, and slow moderation.

And for those expecting emails from me on the idea of a new blog: I have not got there yet and will as soon as I can. But that may not be today . Apologies.
