

Funding the Future

Please ask people if they've registered to vote

Published: January 16, 2026, 6:10 pm

Today is the last day to register to vote in the general election.

Please ask if people have registered if you can. It's not nosy. It's a public service because it's just too important to leave it to chance.

And it can be done online.