I am pleased to share the following announcement from Tax Justice UK:

UPCOMING EVENTS

Announcing two Tax Justice UK and Tax Justice Network events at the Royal Society for the Arts in London on 14 September 2017

PANEL DISCUSSION

17:30 - 19:00

How can we avoid another crisis?

A panel discussion with Daniel M<sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub>gge, Richard Murphy, Daniela Gabor and Nick Shaxson, moderated by Juliette Garside

We will hear from this expert panel about how another global financial crisis can be avoided, ten years after the first. Rather than focusing narrowly on the financial sector, this discussion will look at the role of the wider financial system, considering a range of factors including debt levels, the need for redistribution, and a 'race to the bottom' on tax and regulation.

This event is free but places are limited: **BOOK HERE**

SCREENING and Q&A: 19:45 - 22:30

The Spider's Web: Britain's Second Empire

Followed by a panel discussion with John McDonnell MP, Michael Oswald (Director), Nick Shaxson and Will Snell, moderated by Juliette Garside

The Spider's Web: Britain's Second Empire is a new documentary film that shows how Britain transformed from a imperial power to a global financial power. With contributions from leading experts, academics, former insiders and campaigners for social justice, The Spider's Web reveals how, in the world of international finance, corruption and secrecy have prevailed over regulation and transparency, and how the United Kingdom is at the heart of this system.

This event costs £15 per head and places are limited: **BOOK HERE**
