This is from the home page of Deloitte British Virgin Islands this morning:

Somebody within Deloitte from outside the island might want to help them out with a quick change to that this morning.

What I was actually looking for was an announcement that the Big Four are playing their part in assisting the BVI. I did not find it. I didn't see it on the UK site either where the top two features are:

Maybe they should think about what may be keeping some of their colleagues awake at night and put some of those crisis management skills to better use as a result. A significant dollop of cash would also be a good indicator of intent.

I'll keep an eye on developments.
