For the sake of full disclosure I should note that I have formed a new company limited by guarantee called Corporate Accountability Network Limited. It was going to be called Accounting Standards Network Limited but the word standards is regulated and so a different name was chosen.

The company is not trading as yet.

It will be partaking in research grant applications and so might do so in future. It does, however, have a logo:

The core circle is the corporation: the six smaller rings the stakeholder groups to whom it should report.
