I've long got on with Angus McNeil MP, one of the SNP's longest serving members at Westminster. He tweeted this overnight:

Angus B MacNeil MP (@AngusMacNeilSNP)

21/03/2019, 11:22 Been in touch with Speaker at #Commons
Next week I will, with other MPs, apply for a Debate under Standing Order 24 to push for Commons vote to #RevokeArticle50.
Revocation ends #Brexit in an afternoon & requires only one letter to EU .
Tweet/email your MP to support this.

At least someone is trying to do the right thing for the UK, even if he is a passionate Scottish independent.
