Ipswich Town played their last match of the season today. It was a win. They were very rare this year. Next year, for the first time in more than sixty years they will be in what we used to call Division 3. Having been brought up in Ipswich in the days when Portman Road was the place to be to watch football I can't help but notice that.

So, for those seeking solace, this song from Police Dog Hogan about being the wife of the goalkeeper at Ipswich Town. It seems appropriate:
