

Edinburgh today; Glasgow tomorrow

Published: January 12, 2026, 10:14 pm

For those not aware, I am speaking at a YesHub event in Edinburgh tonight, talking about the Green New Deal and no doubt other things as well. Tickets from here.

And tomorrow I am doing much the same in Glasgow at Common Weal. Details here, but I note this one is sold out so you have to hope someone does not turn up to get in now.

And for those who will ask, this is not being done in my employer's time: I am taking holiday to do this.
