

Priti Patel: sickening

I tweeted this yesterday.

I was sickened by Patel's smile as she said she'd make sure she took away the human rights of people in the UK.

I was appalled as she stated her aim to make the world a worse place.

I was ashamed and sickened that this was happening in this country.

It seems a lot of people agreed.

There is no room for this in the twenty-first century.

And that's why I oppose those who want to leave the EU.
