

Why the Withdrawal Bill is bad law

There is one phrase that appears time and again in the European Union \(Withdrawal Agreement\) Bill 2019. It is this:

A Minister of the Crown may by regulations make such provision as the Minister considers appropriate

In other words, the Bill effectively passes most power to Ministers.

And I do not trust our Ministers.

Which is reason enough not to want this Bill passed and for the time to be taken for these issues to be considered properly instead.
