I threw together a quick post on tax havens and the Brexit deal on Christmas Eve, noting that the UK's tax havens were likely to like it.

That post was the best read one on this blog during December. There were more than 12,000 reads on Christmas Eve and 10,000 on Christmas Day - when precedent suggests around 1,000 or so total reads are likely.

The news spread fast to those who wanted to know that there was an opportunity for abuse coming up, and in they flocked.

I find that very sad.
