From The National newspaper in Scotland in the last hour or so:

The screenshot shows the homepage of The National newspaper. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for NEWS, ELECTION 2021, NATIONAL EXTRA, OPEN MINDS, POLITICS, COMMENT, and COMMUNITY. There is also a search bar and a 'love LOCAL business' logo. The main article is titled 'Richard Murphy: Boris Johnson's foolish nuclear plan will backfire on him' and is dated '2 hrs ago'. It is written by Professor Richard Murphy. The article includes a photo of Richard Murphy and a photo of a submarine. To the right of the article, there is a 'MOST READ' section with three items and a 'COMMENTED' section. The 'MOST READ' section includes links to an SNP ballot paper, Ruth Davidson's role in the UK Government, and Nicola Sturgeon's lockdown update. The 'COMMENTED' section is currently empty.

A different, Scottish orientated, take on this morning's blog here.
