

Not so U shaped after all

Published: January 13, 2026, 2:21 am

---

Do you remember all those who confidently said that we'd have a U shaped recession and that the recovery from Covid would be an immediate bounce back?

This is from the ONS this morning:

2. Monthly GDP headline figures

Figure 1: GDP fell by 2.9% in January 2021 as government restrictions reduced economic activity

Monthly index, January 2007 until January 2021, 2018 = 100

Source: Office for National Statistics - GDP monthly estimate

That does not look very U shaped to me. More like a stuttering.

Expect more of the same. The reality is that this is far from over, but only Joe Biden seems to realise that.