

If you want to stop the government selling your medical...

Published: January 13, 2026, 11:23 am

I don't believe that the NHS should be for sale.

Nor do I think my medical data should be for sale.

The trouble is that in the next stage of NHS privatisation your data is going to be for sale unless you act to stop it. This tweet provides details:

<https://twitter.com/EinsteinsAttic/status/1398029768126251011?s=20>

Copies of that letter and other information are available here.

I refuse to let the government sell my data.

I hope you might too.