Keir Starmer opened his comments at questions to the prime minister in the House of Commons yesterday by saying this:

Mr Speaker, I want to say to Government Members that theirs is the party of Winston Churchill. Our parties stood together as we defeated fascism in Europe. Now their leader stands in the House of Commons parroting the conspiracy theories of violent fascists to try to score cheap political points. He knows exactly what he is doing. It is time to restore some dignity.

The reference to fascism was deliberate.

So too was the suggestion that 'He knows exactly what he is doing'.

I think Starmer knew exactly what he was doing as well.

The reference to Churchill and the war was also deliberate.

As was his suggestion was that Johnson is a fascist because he is using the fascist rulebook to advance his cause.

Johnson did not back down on his false accusation about Starmer in response. Nor did he deny the suggestion made.

The man has been exposed.
