

Apologies to email subscribers

Published: January 13, 2026, 4:29 pm

I must apologise to email subscribers to this blog who have not had messages from me for about a week.

I could not figure out what was happening but have now had it pointed out to me that the failure was due to success. The number of subscribers to the email list had exceeded the number permitted under the subscription deal I had, and so emails had stopped being sent.

I have now paid for a bigger list capacity. Emails should start again as a result.

For those not subscribing, it's easy. The box is on the right-hand side of this post.

Thanks to all those who do subscribe: the number has grown rapidly in recent months and I had not anticipated that when setting up the subscription.
