New Thatcher statue pelted with eggs

A worker removes the lifting straps from the newly installed £300,000 statue of Margaret Thatcher in her home town of Grantham, Lincs. Despite efforts to protect the statue from 'politically minded' vandals, it was pelted with eggs within two hours. Report Page 3

Seriously, what did they expect?

Thatcher knew there was a such a thing as society, and she set out to harm, if not destroy it. Is Grantham seriously expecting anyone to be happy about their veneration of someone who did so much harm?
